Mr. R. Kay Humphrey, Assistant Director,
Civil Defense Program
General Extension Division,
University of Minnesota
Clay School, 2012 Fourth St.,S.,
Minneapolis, Minn., 55404

Dear Mr. Humphrey:

To round out a very enjoyable visit to Minneapolis, herewith is the accounting of my expenses:

I don't know whether you prefer, are required, or find it more convenient to pay per diem or actual expenses. If the latter, then my only expenses other than those shown along with the itinerary amount to the hotel bill, inasmuch as I was fed along the way by Northwest Orient and Col. Elliott.

Airfare (tax-exempt)(Reimbursable to CIA)			$ 111.60
26 April	1745	Lv HQB, office transportation to Dulles International
	1845	Lv Dulles Northwest #91 (Jet Economy)
	2015	Arr Minneapolis
		Limousine to hotel	1.25
27 April	1200	OCD transportation to airport
	1330	Lv Minneapolis, Northwest #352(Jet Econ)
	1645	Arr. Dulles International
		Limousine, Dulles to McLean	2.25
	1730	Returned HQB, McLean, Va.
		Expenditures:	$ 115.10

Note that actual travel was on flights other than those originally booked on the ticket, because I was able to advance departure times to spend less time in travel.

Sincerely,

STATINTL
